The term "SATB" refers to the four voice parts in choir arrangements—Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass—indicating that this version is tailored for a choral ensemble. Such arrangements aim to blend the powerful vocal lines of Houston's original with the rich, harmonious textures that choir singing can provide. This version often appeals to both choir groups and audiences seeking a more layered, theatrical musical experience.

The adaptation begins by maintaining the core melody and lyrical essence of the original, which is a testament to Houston's enduring influence. However, it elevates the song by adding choral harmonies, dynamic contrasts, and sometimes even instrumental interludes that aren't present in the original.
