This section prompts students to recall and articulate the opening of the story. It often includes prompts such as:

- Who are the main characters?
- Where and when does the story take place?
- What is the main problem or setting introduced?

Purpose: To establish context and introduce key elements that set the stage for the story.

The core of the organizer, the filling, captures the sequence of events or main ideas that develop the story. Prompts include:

- What happened first?
- What events are most important?
- How do the characters respond or change?

Purpose: To help students organize the main actions and details in the correct order, ensuring a logical progression.
